

Welcome to eDevelopment

What is the eDevelopment service?

eDevelopment is a free online service run by the Scottish Government. It enables anyone to prepare and submit applications for Planning Permission, Building Warrants, and a range of other forms, to their Scottish local authority.

How can I find out more about the service?

Our helpful User Guidance sets out the basics about the service and how to use it. This also available on this stand.

Getting started is easy – just visit our site to create an account and start an application.

I'd like to find out more about Scotland's Planning system?

Our Planning Customer Journey provides more information about Scotland's Planning process.

For more information, why not check out:

- mygov.scot to learn more about the process itself, and
- gov.scot to learn more about Scottish Planning policy.
- PAS offer a free, impartial and confidential Advice Service to help with any planning issues.

I'd like to find out more about Scotland's Building Standards system?

Our Building Standards Customer Journey provides more information about Scotland's Building Standards process.

For more information, why not check out:

- mygov.scot to learn more about the process itself, and
- gov.scot to learn more about Scottish Building Standards policy.

What does the future hold for Planning in Scotland?

TransformingPlanning.scot has more information on our wider work to transform Scotland's Planning system. Take a look to find out more about what we're working on.
